Lesfugton, Ky .- (Special.)-A letter kes been sent out to all the county c.erks of Kentucky by Col. John R. elien of Lexington, attorney for the Kentucky Federation of Women's Cubs asking if they will prepare septrute ballets for women who desire to intricipate in the election of county soned superintendent at the primary to be held August 2nd. In the suit tiought by Mrs. Waller Bullock vs. Theo. Lewis, as county clerk of Faycite county, the Fayette circuit court decided that all women who possessed the legal qualifications required of male voters in the common school electhen, and who in addition are able to read and write, are entitled to vote for county superintendent. The court of appeals declined to take jurisdiction in the case. Pastor Russell at Washington Temple Discusses Second Text Quoted on Union Depot Portale-Millennium le Beginning, He Avers-Greater Blessings to Follow Shortly-Momentary Chaps Soon to Yield to the Prince of Peace. Who Will Inaugurate Reign of Rightsousness and Love.

Washington, D. C., January 12 .-Pastor Russell preached this aft ernoon at the Temple, corner Thirteenth Street Avenue, to a large congregation. He made the rather startling declaralengium is al ready here; that chronology proves that we have been fiving under some of its blessings for the past thirty eight years; and that our modern conveniences and progress are attributable to the beginning of the rolling away of the curse, and the substitution of the Divine blessing.

The reign of Messiah for a thousand years will not only bind Satan and hinder his further deception of mankind but will also bring light, knowledge, illumination, to every corner of the earth. The speaker pointed out the beginning of these blessings as already with us; but they are only the faint dawnings of the greater light which will flood the world when the great Sun of Highteousness, Emmannel's Kingdom, shall be manifested above the horizon.

Yet we must not expect all sunshine. A great cloud is immediately before us, with a terrific storm, which will convulse the present order of thingssocial, financial, political and religious. The momentary chaos will yield to the Prince of Peace, who will then take to Himself His great power and reign. He will say to the raging winds of strife and the billowy waves of trouble, "Peace, be still!" and there will be a great calm, even as was illustrated on the Sea of Galilee.

The storm, the Pastor stated, is some imes spoken of as a manifestation of Divine wrath and indignation; but he explained that the great Jehovah is the synonym for Justice, and Messiah is the synonym for Mercy. Justice operates along the lines of cause and effect. Whomever sins shall suffer. From this viewpoint, he explained, the trouble which will precede the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom will be the nutaral, logical result of the operation of the laws of Justice.

Humanity is not using the blessings of this Millennial Morning in that noble and generous manner in which they should be used. Selfishness prevails verywhere, amongst rich and poor, the earth's present abundant supply for men's needs should bring contentment to high and low, rich and poor; but it is bringing the reverse, because deprayity The noble image of the Creafor has been considerably lost, though no one is totally depraved.

God will allow this ferment of selfshness to lead on to its natural results, in order to demonstrate to mankind the fallacy of that principle-in order to prepare men to appreciate the reign of righteousness, equity, mercy and love, about to be inaugurated. The lesson, he said, will be a terribly severe onebut not too severe, if it teaches mankind the purposed lesson of the sinfulness of sin, selfishness, meanness and he beauty of holiness, righteousness. harmony with God l'astor Russell took as his text Isalah 15:1, which declares, "The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." This rophecy is having a literal fulfilment now in our Western States. He told what he had seen to Oregon and Washington-beautiful groves bearing delicious fruits growing where one nothing but sage brush grew-on land supposed at one time to be practically valueless. Still More Wonderful Things.

"The Desert Shall Blossom

Pastor Russell, dealing with the con text, pointed out that it tells the whole story. He applied Verse 3 to the present time, declaring that he was seeking to carry out its command, "Strengthen ye the weak bands and confirm the feetile knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, He strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recommense; He will come and save you."-Verses 3, 4.

The Church is here addressed-not the world. True, Messiah's coming is to bless the world, but before the blessing can come to the world, the Elect Church must first be gathered. By the 'change' of the First Resurrection, the Elect will cease to be of the human nature and will become spirit beings. "like unto the angels." but higher-"par takers of the Divine Nature."

This Elect class, the Pastor declared. is Scripturally called "The Bride, the Lamb's Wife." In all of God's dealings with humanity this class is to have the preëminence, as Spiritual Israel. They are not all children of Abraham by nature, he said, but are his children by faith: for Abraham typically was the Father of the Faithful. Abraham represented Jehovah, as Isaac typided the Son, Jesus, and Rebecca, Isaac's bride. typined the Church. The first of this company was gathered from the natural seed of Abraham, but the company as a whole has been completed out of ev ery nation, people, kindred and tougue. None, however, but saintly, holy ones can be members of this Elect class. After its completion, the Divine bless ing will extend through it to natural Israel, and through them to all nations again. The blessing then to be be stowed, however, will not be of the same character. They will all be earthly blessings the life and health in Paradise will all be earthly. Only the Church of the First-born, begotten of the Holy Spirit, know; and only such can go on to make their calling and election sure and attain the birth of the Spirit in the resurrection. All oth ers remaining of the human nature will get the blessings which God has provided for humanity. These, the Pastor said, will surpass anything of which the human mind has ever yet conceived.

Opening the Blinded Eyes.

The miracles which Jesus did at His First Advent were merely little illustrations of the much greater work which He will accomplish at His Second Advent. He explained this to the Apostles, saying, Greater works than these shall ye do. (See John 14:12) 11 is a greater work now to open the eyes of human understanding to appreciate the Divine Character and Plan than to open the natural eyes, as Jesus did. So. in the future Jesus and His Church, during the thousand years of Messiah's Kingdom, will open blinded eyes of understanding, unstep ears that have long been deaf to the Truth, loose to sing praises to God tongues that have never yet experienced that blessing. Moreover, as our context declares, the lame will be strong and leap for joy. We are not disputing that all the lameness, deafness, aliments of the present time, will quite disappear during Messiah's reign of a thousand years. We are merely laying emphasis on the fact that the greater blessings will come also; the lamenesses, for instance, of human weakness and frallty incident to the fall and its heredi tary influence. All this lameness will be done away with-gradually.

What a new aspect earth will wear when Paradise shall bloom, when righteousness shall prevail, when sickness and sin, sorrow and pain and dying shall gradually fade away before the touches of the glorious sunlight of that New Dispensation!

"A Highway Shall Be There."

The context declares that then a Highway of Holiness shall be estab-The Hebrew word signifies a public thoroughfare. Sajan will then be bound and no longer allowed to plant the seeds of discard, strife, error, misunderstanding of God, nor be permit ted to water these seeds. On the contrary, every influence then will be favorable, as new every influence is unfavorable to those who would walk in the path of justice, equity, righteous-

Whither will that Highway lead the traveler, do you ask? Will it lead him to the same glory, honor and humor tality to which the narrow path of suc rifice and self-denial now leads the consecrated people of God who walk to the footsteps of Jesus? On, no! the nerrow path of sacrifice will then be at an end, having accomplished the purpose for which it was designed, or permitted—the selection of the Bride. class. Messiah's joint-heirs, or Cabinet, to His Kingdom.

The Highway which Messiah's Kingdom will open up to all the children of Adam-to the non-elect-will lend them back to perfection. When God made Father Adam, He made him a man, not an angel-an earthly being, not a hear enly being. God crowned Adam with earthly glory and honor, and set him as king over the earth, its fish, fowl. beasts. God changes not. His purpose is the same today as in the beginning.

For six thousand years God has at lowed humanity to propagate and go down into the sleep of death, there to await a better time future. Meantime God sent forth His Son and redeemed mankind, and then giorified the obedi ent Savior. Since then, God has been electing a saintly few to be Messiah's foint-heirs. The next thing in order is the blessing of all the remainder of Adam's race by Restitution-restoration to the earthly glory and honor originally intended, but lost by sin and redeemed at Calvary.

Let this thought come to our hearts and minds as in the future we look at the Union Depot and read the inscrip tion there: "The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." So doing. our hearts will be drawn nearer to the Lord. Our increasing faith will make increasing obedience more nearly possible. And love for our Creator will come in to sanctify our hearts and to assist us in showing forth the pruises of Him who hath called us out of dark ness into His marvelous light.

The Prophet declares respecting the hosts that will pass over the Highway of Holiness, that they are all the rau somed of the Lord-the redeemed world of mankind. He says, "The ransomed of the Lord shall be restored and come to Zion with sougs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sor row and sighing will flee away." And Jesus adds that there shall be no more sighing, crying and dying, because all the former things of sin and death shall have passed away. He that sit teth upon the Throne shall make all things new.-Revelation 21:4, 5.

Jesus a Ransom For All. Once in our ignorance we supposed that Jesus died only for the Churchthat only the Bride class, the Little Flock, were to be ransomed by the precious blood. Now we see different ly-that God's Love and the provision He has made in Christ are worldwide. We knew that the Scriptures stated the matter broadly, but we look ed through the narrow spectacles of the creeds of the Dark Ages. Thus we disregarded the words of the Apos-tle, "God * * will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowl edge of the Truth. For there is on God, and one Mediator between God and men [mankind], the Man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a runnom for all, to be testified in due time." Timothy 2:4-6.) How strange that we could have read these precious words over and over again without seeing their real import! How doubly strange. when we so well know that few of our friends, relatives and neighbors belonged in any sense or degree to the saintly Little Flock, the Elect!

How glad we are that in this Morning time when the light is shining in opon all subjects, and when all mankind are learning to think more connectedly, we may enjoy the clearer light of God's Word! It is so very broad in one sense of the Word, and yet so very narrow, in another, that it meets every condition. None but the saintly followers in the dom class. Then the wideness of God's Mercy will operate, through the King dom class on the spirit plane, to give all humanity a blessed opportunity to come to a knowledge of God. As they shall experience the blessings secured for them through the "Ransom for all, they will have the privilege of going up, up, up the Highway of Holiness. during the thousand years, to its end.

The reward will be human perfection and a world-wide Eden, gradually at tained under the assistance of the Church in glory, the Kingdom Ultimately. God's blessing and everlasting life will be given to all the willing and bedient. Even the wilfully wicked will not be tortured eternally, but will be destroyed with an everlasting destruction from which there will be no recovery. Ah! now we see the glorious prize before the Church and the neces sity for her narrow way of trial, test ing! Now do we see that the wide ness of God's Mercy is as the wide ness of the sea, in the provision that as all came under the reign of sin and death, through Father Adam, all may ome under the blessed reign of right cousness and life everlasting through the Redeemer, the Second Adam!

It is from that destruction toward which all are tending that Christ has redeemed all. And His Kingdom will e for the very purpose of destroying he broad way and rescuing the poor legenerates born in sin and shapen in iniquity, who were heedlessly going the downward way. In the Highway there will be no flons and ravenous beants of licensed saloons and other evils to tempt, to entrap; and Satan the great Adversary, will be bound during that thousand years.

What a glorious change from the present time! Everything then will helpful. Instead of evil spirits to attempt to mislead and deceive, will be the giorified ones on the spirit plane to assist and direct. Nevertheless, we see, according to the Scriptures, the importance of the various trials and difficulties of the present time. God is new seeking a very special class; and in order to be fitted and prepared for His service, they must be able to stand

Wherever people are thinking definitely about the future they realize that the child is the greatest problem with which the state has to deal because it is the state's greatest asset. This is especially true in the rural districts, and both teachers and parents are getting ready for the newer life that promises to develop within the next twenty-five years or sooner.

Four miles out of Louisville on one of the main turnpikes, where for years the people had been thoroughly satisfied with a poor schoolbouse and a poorer playground, a new building has gone up. This building was made possible by the district levying a special fifteen cent tax for two years and securing the help of the county board of education. When the public began to understand what was taking place it railled to the support of the new school. This was made very plain when the Southern Brick and Tile company, which had a large plant in the neighborhood, added an extra acre of ground to the acre already secured by the trustee for the district.

The moment one enters the beautiful brick building with its soft green roof that harmonizes with the surroundings it is evident that it is an up to date school with a modern school equipment, for a sanitary drinking fountain is the first thing that catches the eye. The building has two beautiful schoolrooms perfectly lighted and equipped with modern single desks. Two ample cloakrooms are immediately in front of the classrooms and open into the main hall, while at one end of the building there is a cozy rest room for teachers and pupils, with a light, pleasant little library. Both of the classrooms are arranged so that they may be turned into one huge room, while the teachers' platforms can be joined and become a stage with the library and rest room as dressing rooms for the same.
